NEBRASKA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

ANNUAL '52

Printed by the student body of Nebraska Christian College
of Norfolk, Nebraska

"To a man who has toiled endlessly in the work of Nebraska Christian College, who has engraved a permanent image in the hearts of all the students, . . . to a man who has been a loyal friend to all the churches of this area and in his tyros has left a lasting monument in the work of the kingdom, . . . to a man whose happy smile and friendly ways shall long be remembered, we sincerely dedicate this publication to . . . C. Willis Schnelle."

Our President

C. WILLIS SCHNELLE

A.B. 1940 Manhattan B.C.

M.A. 1943 Phillips Univ.

B.D. 1945 Phillips Univ.

Mr. Schnelle, who has been serving as president of Nebraska Christian College for the past four years, began his work with the College as Dean at the mid-term of 1946-47. During his labors with the College the student body has increased seventy per cent.

At the close of the 1951-52 school year he will resign his position as president to re-enter pastoral work.

Mr. Schnelle's interest is in other things as well as being College President. He is a high and mighty but small man. That is, he is up in the air most of the time. His other hobbies include making toys for his children and what-nots for the home in his work shop; he also enjoys and is becoming quite talented with tape recording in which he has been engaged preparing radio broadcasts for the school.

VIRGIL P. BROCK

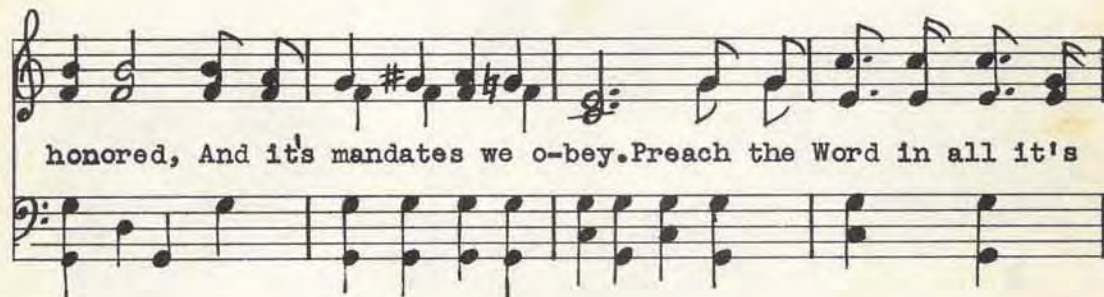

BLANCHE KERR BROCK

We are stu-dents of Ne-bras-ka Chris-tian col-lege, And we're proud that we can say It's a col-lege where the Word of God is honored, And it's mandates we o-bey. Preach the Word in all it's fullness and it's beau-ty, For the gos-pel we must know; Heeding then the Saviour's great commission; He com-mands, We must go!

*Through wisdom is an house builded;
and by understanding it is established; and by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all the precious and pleasant riches. Proverbs 24:2-4*

Our home away from home is a lovely place, full of laughter, mingled with tears. Dear to the hearts of all these girls will be the memory of the hours spent within these walls, For any girl "dorm life" holds a strange fascination.

After some frantic searching Shirley and Mary Louise found two rooms for the price of one. A special study room! Yes, they really do study—their Greek proves it.

Just around the corner and up a block is Carolyn's headquarters. From here she dashes to J.C., the high school building, practice teaching and Bible college.

The second semester Vivian and Ila Belle located a room close by. Their room is usually vacant over week ends for Ila Belle reports to work with the church at Missouri Valley, Iowa, and Vivian makes frequent trips with the gospel team which goes to Liberty chapel near Arcadia, Nebraska.

Vernon is the only boy residing at President Schnelle's this year. With no roommate, circumstances would seem ideal for concentrated study, but Vernon seems to have interests at the dormitory! Maybe he is fond of doing dishes.

Larry and Keith are very good roommates, friendly and considerate of each other, but something must be wrong. Larry has already lost one roommate this year and soon will lose another.

Wayne and Elmer must be very congenial roommates. While Wayne practices the French horn, Elmer can practice his sales speech for the Memomatic.

Within this home dwells our president, his wife, Eva, daughter Sondra Kay and twin sons, Robert and Ronald. (Your guess is as good as ours.) Here they all are in one of their rare quiet moments.

The new home to which Professor Milliken brought his bride, Greta, last June. Son Robert Charles arrived March 30 to liven things up a bit.

Prof. and Mrs. Hanson and their children, Ruth, Larry, Mary Edith, and Bruce, make their home at 111 North 10th, better known as Harmony House. With four active school children, there is never a dull moment.

John, Ilene and David Filatreau also live at 111 North 10th. They have a second floor apartment in the Hanson residence. Johnny is not only a full time student but serves also as minister of the local congregation.

Clyde and Dorothy Gullickson are not Norfolkins. Their home is in Neligh, about forty-five miles from here, and Clyde preaches at Clearwater. He makes the trip daily to and from school.

Nim Abbott lives with former N.C.C.ite Christina Stalder at 400 South 5th. There's always an exciting time in store for those who visit their cozy apartment.

Howard, Barbara and Helen Louise Snow occupy the basement apartment of the Bible College. Barbara's afternoon baking feats often increase the appetites of those who might be upstairs.

Albert and Ethel Delbridge and daughters, Phyllis and Nancy, make their abode in the trailer provided by N.C.C. for the field man and his family. They are located somewhere in N.C.C. field territory, but their address is constantly changing.

Edgar and Lucy White and three children—Stephen, Vincent and Roxann—can be found at 917 South 5th. Although burdened with the problem of a family, Edgar and Lucy are happy in the Lord's work and full-time endeavor.

John and Enola Thomas and daughters, Sandra and Judy, live in the small garage behind the girls' dormitory. With growing children the space is small but all are happy and willing to economize for the privilege of Bible college.

Orin and Shirley Dyer journey to school every day from Madison where they live. They live in the church parsonage. They are active in the church where Orin preaches.

Edith Mae and Ed Maertens have their trailer house conveniently parked behind the college building. Ed can get up at five 'til seven and be on time to a seven o'clock class.

Ronald and Dona Burt set up house-keeping in an apartment close to the college. Classes, work, house-keeping, and preaching points leave little extra time.
