FOCUS ON JESUS

IN A DISTRACTED WORLD

"Multi-tasking" describes a computer's ability to do multiple activities simultaneously. However, this ability to "multi-task" is not limited only to computer technology.

At times, it seems like life itself requires of us the ability to multi-task in order to balance all of the competing demands. Reading assignments, class projects, athletic practice, work, phone calls, letter, e-mail, MSN, studying for tests, research for the next paper, time for friends, church, volunteer ministry, exercise (uughh), quiet time, Bible study, intramurals, D-groups and devotions all stretch us in many directions. If you add special interests, television, video games, movies and the internet, then the distractions mount ever higher (now might be a good time for a clone).

Yet in the frenzy of voices calling for our attention, scripture is very clear that our remedy is not in multi-tasking to manage busier lives. Instead, a Voice from Heaven urges us to listen to Jesus (Mt. 17:5). Our success in life is not in learning how many things we can do, but rather to manage to do one thing (Lk. 10:42) with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength (Mt. 22:37). Jesus said simply, "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness..." (Mt. 6:33).

Can sanity really be that simple? YES! The solution, "Focus on Jesus", is not only simple, it's essential.

Our theme for the 2002-03 school year was a call away from multi-tasking and a call back to priority #1—"Fix your eyes on Jesus" (Heb. 12:1-3). As you review this yearbook, I pray for three miracles in your life. First, I pray that you will see Jesus like you've never seen Him before. Second, I pray that what you see in Jesus will change your life forever. Finally, I pray that your ministry will reflect the ministry of Jesus, so others will see Jesus in you.

Thank you for making the 2002-03 year a great year. Keep your focus on Jesus!!!

D- Groups

"The purpose of D-Groups is to have a time of accountability, a time for a small intimate group to unite as a body of Christ and lift one another up as brothers and sisters in Christ! It is also to help as a foundation for spiritual life on our campus here at NCC." - Hannah Burkle, Spiritual Life Chairman

How has D-groups influenced you?

Mike Poyzer - "D-Groups really helps my prayer life."

Stacie Reed - "It's a good opportunity to meet people around school on a more personal level, especially those you don't normally talk to."

Tennille Theishaefter and Tonia Durant at D-Groups

How has D-Groups influenced you?

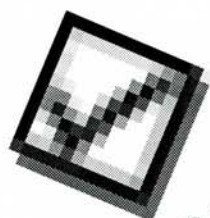

Adam DeFrancisco - "I've grown more in my spiritual life. Cody Shepherd is my leader and I've gotten close to him. It's allowed me to open up more with him."

"I enjoy being a leader because I'm all about accountability with one another and this opportunity gives me the chance to really challenge girls and have weekly follow up with them. It also encourages and pushes my own spiritual walk." -

Lindsay Keele, D-Group Leader

D-Groups meet for 1-2 hours, once a week. Some of the areas studied are strengths, weaknesses, time management, prayer, purity and focus!! Activities range from watching movies, Bible study, open conversation, prayer night, etc.

NCC Cafeteria

Mark Wayman receiving gift from David Husky.

We Say Thank You to Mark Wayman!!

Mark was with us from the beginning of Fall Semester 2001 to the end of Spring Semester 2002. He left NCC due to a relocation by Coronet Foods to a bigger school in Indiana. There he joins the rest of his family.

"He was my boss for awhile and I liked him a lot. He was good about being organized and was a great servant. He was friendly and talkative, a great evangelist. He was my favorite boss." -Sam Henry

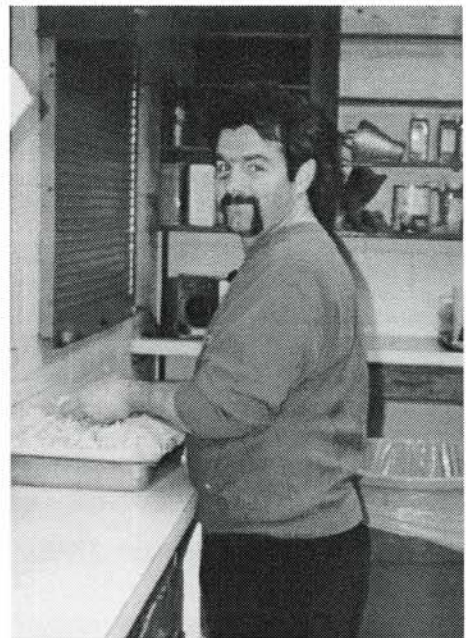

"Mark took what we had to work with and made it better—the cereal was excellent! -Kyle Dana and Andy Hall

Scott Squires

We have seen a lot of new faces around campus and one of those is Scott Squires, the new cafeteria head from Coronet Foods. Scott has been with Coronet for four years and started at NCC in the Spring Semester of 2003. He has two Coronet employees under him, Jessica Stockman and Judy Colin. The NCC employees include Becky Arnold, Sam Henry, Virginia Lucero and Katie Perkins.

The best thing about Scott's job, he says, is "...it's challenging. I'm trying to meet expectations and bring a good change. Scott's favorite meal to prepare is Lasagna, his least favorite...Swiss Steak.

Q. Sum up what you think chapel is all about - what is it for?

Kristen: It brings me into a closer relationship with Jesus Christ.

Andrew: A time to catch a better glimpse, or picture of the character of God by praising the Trinity in song and proclaiming how wonderful they are, and by hearing God's Word spoken through various speakers who uplift, challenge, and help us to understand Him better.

Josh: A non-academic refocusing on Jesus and our mission statement.

Virginia: Christ, Honoring, Action, Praise, Encouraging, Love

Katie: To worship and learn as one unified student body.

Q. If you could participate in chapel regardless of your abilities, what would you do?

Kristen: Sing and play the guitar for Praise and Worship.

Andrew: I'd like to play guitar.

Josh: I'd like to play an Instrument.

Shawn: I would be the sound technician.

Virginia: I'd lead worship if I could.

Katie: I'd play the drums or guitar during worship.

Shawn: The one I manage to force myself to keep my head up and my eyes open. When that happens, I don't know.

Virginia: The worship.

Katie: The September 11, 2001 chapel.

Q. If you could change one thing about chapel, what would it be?

Kristen: I'd like to see Brenda Lara play her flute for special music.

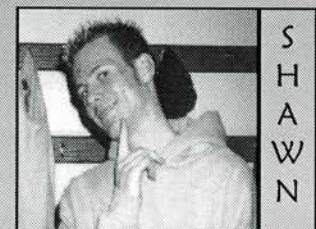

Andrew: I wouldn't change anything.

Josh: More variety; less formality.

Shawn: Let the students pick the speakers.

Virginia: Let the students pick the speakers; get African American preachers.

Katie: Pick speakers from a complete range of churches and diverse walks of life; get a African American preacher.
